

Kylie Porter

Head of Sustainability

SunRice Group

Bio:

Kylie Porter is a sustainability and ESG-risk professional with more than 20 years' experience in sustainability strategy and leadership roles. As SunRice Group's Head of Sustainability, Kylie leads on the development and execution of the Group's sustainability strategy globally, including across key areas of climate change, biodiversity, human rights and community investment. This includes the Group's Net Zero commitment and implementation of its emissions reduction targets, which includes initiatives to decarbonise rice.

Kylie was previously the Executive Director of the UN Global Compact Network Australia — the Australian Local Network of the United Nations Global Compact — where she transformed the organisation into Australia's largest corporate sustainability initiative. Kylie has held corporate sustainability roles in financial services, professional services and international NGO sectors across Australia, Singapore and the United Kingdom. Kylie is driven by her ambition to enable organisations to achieve positive change for people and planet by embedding sustainability principles and commitments into corporate strategy. Kylie was recognised as an ESG Power50 by FS Sustainability in 2024.

Currently, Kylie is member of the Australian Government's Expert Advisory Group on Modern Slavery, the Australian Agricultural Sustainability Framework (AASF) Expert Advisory Group, the Co-Chair of Footy for Climate and the Deputy Chair of XSPI's Advisory Committee. She was previously a board member of the UN Global Compact and an adviser to the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade's External Advisory Group for Australia's new International Development Policy. Kylie holds a Masters in Social Science (International Development), is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a fellow of the Cranlana Institute's Vincent Fairfax Fellowship on Ethical Leadership.
